President's Message

Happy Holidays,

I hope everyone made it through the storm, healthy and enjoying life – hopefully in the sewing room, creating beautiful works of art. Welcome to our newest member, Gevetia Saunders. Please take the time to welcome her. As a guest in September, she showed the material she designed. That was so cool.

Congrats to our very own member, Charlene Pope, who received the honor of “Best of Show Bed Quilt” at the recent New Bern Quilt Show. Charlene did fantastic work creating this quilt for her husband. Katherine Haleen quilted Charlene’s beautiful piece of art. The quilt is on display at Quilt Lizzy, where they both work. Stop by and see the fantastic quilt.

October:

- On the Guild’s Holiday Sew Day, we had 18 members in attendance; many took the two wonderful classes.
 - Charlene Pope on “Strip Piecing a Log Cabin” - 8 members attended
 - Teresa Manning, President, Threads of the Pungo Guild, on “Fine Tuning the Art of Sewing Curves.” - 7 members attended.
- We had our annual board elections: Congrats to Kim Perkins, Missy Pierce, Sue Miller, and Charlene Pope.
- October Craft Fair – Thank you to all the members who made items for the booth. A special shoutout to the ladies that worked the booth. The craft fair boxes need to be replenished with new items. We would love to see some all year long instead of waiting until the last minute. It would be easier for you and the person organizing the event.
- Guild Retreat was a total success – thank you, Missy, for all your hard work. We had a full house, and we all had a blast and completed many projects.

November:

- Tuesday, November 8, No sew day.
- Tuesday, November 8, Guild Meeting at 7 pm, is a go but change in location: We will meet in the Sanctuary at the Church.
- Saturday, November 12, Barn Quilt Class by Jacqui Pritchard, the cost is $50, and all supplies will be provided. The class will start at 9:30 am at Enon Church. I have a list from last month and if you want to add your name, please let me know soon so Jacqui can get enough boards cut.

December:

- Tuesday, December 13th, at 6 pm (doors open at 5:30 pm) Is our Holiday party where we share friendships and laughs over a great potluck dinner. We need to plan for the party, so please respond to the invite on CPQNG Facebook. If you are not on Facebook, please let me know on or before the November meeting. The Food sign-up list will be placed at the membership table at the November meeting, or you can call me if you are not attending the meeting. . Details will be discussed at the November meeting.

We would love to turn in a lot more quilts (Portable Hugs) before the holidays for the children. Look for those UFOs hiding in your stash that are almost done.

Remember stay healthy, have fun, and whenever you get the chance spread kindness... People need this, especially during the upcoming holidays.

Mary Kay Smith

Child Advocacy News

A total of 17 'Portable Hug' Quilts were delivered In October to One Place Child Advocacy Center. Outstanding work ladies!! Thank you.

Membership Committee

Our guild currently has 63 members. Welcome, Gevetia Saunders! The newest roster is posted on the guild Facebook page - CPNQG Members.

CPNQG Craft Fair

The craft fair was a huge success. We were in a great location, and the ability to set up the day before was beautiful. The fair's attendance was large, and the sales for a ONE-day event were terrific.

Final Sales that day: $640.00

Cost of 2 spaces & 2 tables: $70.00

Net Profit: $570.00

Thank you to Denise Thompson, Connie Farland, and Tori Smith for all your help. Extra shout out to my friend Betty Passe who helped the guild immensely!

Facebook Groups

As a guild member you have the opportunity to join two private FaceBook Groups. The groups are CPNQG MEMBERS and Eastern North Carolina Quilters Association. Both groups require that you request to join the group and to answer several questions. If you have any questions, please see one of the Social Media Committee Members.

2023 Raffle Quilt

Tickets are available for purchase at $2 each or three tickets for $5. You can get your tickets at our guild meetings. Also Quilt Lizzy and All About Quilting have them for sale.

As a quilt guild member, please consider supporting this raffle through a sale purchase of $20 tickets. The profits help to support our guild programs and activities.

Congratulations Charlene Pope!!

Have you ever thought about submitting a quilt to be judged at a quilt show? Charlene Pope thought about it and did just that with a quilt made for her husband. The quilt was submitted to the BEE BY THE RIVER quilt show hosted by the Twin Rivers Quilt Guild at the New Bern Convention Center on October 21 and 22. The quilt was named “Frank’s Caribbean”. The quilt measures 108”x112”.

Charlene pieced the quilt and her friend Katherine Haleen quilted it to become a prize winning piece of art. Charlene won two ribbons - “Best of Show, First Time Entry” and “Best of Show, Bed Quilt”. I can’t wait to see what she creates next.

Upcoming Guild Happenings

November 8th - NO SEW DAY

November 8th - Monthly Guild meeting beginning at 7PM.

MEETING LOCATION HAS CHANGED AT THE CHURCH.

We will meet in the Sanctuary – come in through the adult learning center on the left of normal meeting hall. Fellowship Hall is a voting site so it will not be available.

November 12th - Barn Quilt Class presented by Jacqui Pritchard. Cost is $50 and all supplies will be provided. The class will start at 9:30am at Enon Church, which is located at the Piney Green and Hwy 24 intersection. You may bring a small handheld hair dryer to make the paint dry faster. A signup list was started in October and you can add your name in November if you want to attend. Jacqui needs to have the number of attendees to have enough boards cut for the class.

December 13th - Annual Holiday Guild Party. Begins at 6:00 pm and doors will open at 5:30pm. Please respond to the CPQNG Facebook page invitation so we can plan for all who wish to attend. If you are not on CPQNG Facebook, please contact Mary Kay to let her know if you are going to attend. A signup for food will be available at the membership table at the November meeting to those who are attending. The night will be filled with games, fun, and fellowship. More details to follow after the November guild meeting.
