JUNE 2023

President's Message

Hello Guild members~

I missed you all last month. I heard it was a great meeting. Thank you Missy for stepping in and doing a great job. I am always grateful for the talent we have in our own guild. During May, Kelly coached a group of ladies in Richlands on sewing a Retreat bag and Connie taught color theory at our guild meeting. Thank you both for doing educating our members. We appreciate you.

We have three important dates this month. On June 13th, our guild meeting will be held at One Place (900 Dennis Road, Jacksonville). Our business meeting will be short that evening so the Child Advocacy Staff can show us what they do and why what we do is so important. Remember show and tell at this meeting is only items that are being donated to Child Advocacy. We would love to have large amount of quilts to give them that night.

Also in June, we will have an Open Sew Day as well as a New Member Get Together. June 19th will be our open all day sew at Centerview Baptist from 9:00-4:00.

If you joined the guild after May 2022, you are invited to please join us in our annual get acquainted get together for new members on June 25th at the Clubhouse in Heritage Square (2004 Colony Drive) from 6:00-8:30.

I look forward to seeing you all soon.

Kim Perkins

Quilt Guild News

We have several committees in our guild. Over the next few months, we want to introduce you to them and their chairperson.

Sue Miller chairs the One Place Child Advocacy Committee this year. This committee is our liaison to One Place. Sue and her team are responsible for putting together quilt kits to help make things easier for the rest of us. She also makes sure the quilts get to the Center each month. She is always looking for help. Ask her if you would like to be a blessing to a hurting child.

JUNE 2023

June 17th - Quilt of Valor Sew Day (information below)

Sept 15th/16th - Greenville Quilter's Guild Quilt Show - Greenville Convention Center

Oct. 14th - New Bern Guild Day of Sharing

March 23rd 2024 - Crystal Coast Guild Day of Sharing

From Kirsta and Marty -

Quilts of Valor sew day scheduled for June 17 from 10 until 2 at the Stephen Cohen Veterans Center on 3245 Henderson Drive, Jacksonville.

What can you do that day?

- You can bring your machine and sewing tools and sew kits (quilt tops) - pillowcases - or blocks.
- You can iron - anything that people pass your way!
- You can cut - anything that people pass your way - or fabric that is leftover that we try to cut into useable pieces - like 5" squares, etc.
- You can come and hang out and learn along the way! We are trying another location - this one was much easier to work with - so come and help out - many hands make light the work!

Last sew day we accomplished 7 quilt tops ready for presentation! All the labels hemmed, and 20 pillowcases totally made with the burrito style! Anything we accomplish will make our veterans smile and that is great!

Thanks for all that have helped in the past and those that would like to help in the future - we have kits that can be picked up at All About Quilting and you can take home and sew if you prefer.
